

As a small business owner that travels three different states I KNOW that satellite radio provides variety and quality that are not available elsewhere there are many spots where no local traffic & weather can be received & xm really comes through when your in the middle of nowhere on a bad winter pass.